

This image shows a single, heavily damaged page from a notebook or ledger. The page is ruled with horizontal lines. At the top, there is a header section with two fields: "I Mittente" on the left and "Lettera di vettura in internazionale" on the right. The page is severely torn, with large sections missing, particularly along the left edge and in the middle. The remaining paper is discolored and stained. The text is mostly illegible due to the damage.
