For the general terms and conditions please refer to the internet: www.kuka.com/AGB-Roboter

If, due to the current pandemic (coronavirus) and the consequences thereof, the execution of the agreement is delayed in whole or in part or becomes impossible (in particular shortage of raw materials or components, entry bans, shutdown), neither of the parties shall be responsible and the resulting liability of the parties is excluded (including contractual penalties, interest on arrears, damages caused by delay). If one of the parties is affected by a delay/impossibility, it shall inform the other party thereof, stating the respective event and the expected duration. Any delivery or performance deadlines - even during the period of delay - shall be extended by the duration of the disruptions in performance caused by these circumstances; this shall also apply if such circumstances occur at subcontractors.

In the event of impediment to performance, over a period of more than 4 months or a repeated significant impediment to performance, the parties shall negotiate an adjustment of the agreement upon written request by one of the parties.

The mentioned dates or other covenants are only binding as long as they are not directly or indirectly impaired by the current exceptional overall situation (pandemic coronavirus). In the event that any dates or other covenants are negatively affected, the respective dates or covenants have to be mutually amended by the parties accordingly.
